BOOLIGAL SHEEP RACES

SATURDAY 12 APRIL 2014

The inaugural Booligal Sheep Races were held in 1998 when locals decided to have a bit fun and light relief from the grim prospects of drought and low commodity prices.

Patrons were encouraged to bring along their merino wether and enter them in The Booligal Cup.

The yearly event is a major fundraiser which has now developed to attract visitors from throughout Australia and overseas to the tiny township of Booligal, in Western NSW.

Since the very first sheep races' the volunteer Booligal Sheep Races committee has donated over $120,000 to charitable organisations in the district.
